MONDAY MORNING, JANUARY [illegible]

The Situation Now

Events thicken so fast upon us that it takes more than the ordinary attention [illegible] to keep up with the progress the National [illegible] is making at the present time. It was [illegible] that Sherman advanced upon Savannah, and it seems already that its capture and occupation by his army is an old story. The [illegible] lately left the vicinity of Wilmington [illegible] repulsed had not given us a full report of its proceedings on that occasion when we are told by the lightning that Admiral Porter has returned there and that the same army that landed there before under another General, has stormed and carried the opposing works and with the loss of some hundreds of noble men Fort Fisher is ours.

With the success thus attained we have acquired the command of the Cape Fear river and the numerous blockaders that have been courting fortune so successfully by creeping through the numberless inlets that indent the Carolina shore to that river, and then exchanging at Wilmington needed supplies or foreign goods for a cargo of omnipotent cotton have come to heavy grief and go mourning about upon the face of the deep like the dove that left the ark and could not find a resting place. "Wilmington we soon will have," says the gallant Porter, and who ever knew Porter to prophesy a lie? Caswell another fort near Wilmington, has been blown up and abandoned by the rebel garrison and the pirate crafts, the Chickahominy and Tallahassee have shared the same fate to save them from capture.

Our forces are now advancing on Wilmington and Charleston. While Terry and Porter are closing on the former, Sherman and the magnificent army that have learned never to be defeated under him are taking steps to make sure of the latter. Charleston, the earliest nest of treason well deserves to have her pride humbled by seeing legions of Federal soldiers marching through her almost deserted war shattered streets. Granger is at Mobile and we may soon hear that this last rebel city of the Gulf is under Federal rule once more. Southern armies have vanished, and instead, lawless bands of men ravage Southern fields and plunder Southern homes. Richmond alone has force enough to keep its beleaguring foe at bay awhile, and it is no doubt a masterly policy in Grant to keep them there.

There are rumors of peace everywhere. The rebel Congress still vaunts itself as powerful, and disdains to lay down arms, but even there the change is very apparent in the fact that we can see and hear much that expresses dissatisfaction, and some few at least who boldly talk of reconstruction. Blair has been to Richmond and has returned again. Rumors are rife that his errand is of peace, and that commissioners from either side are to meet, as the result of his efforts, and find out a road to effect it. The Raleigh (N C) Whig comes out boldly for a return to the Union. Several counties in Georgia have given their opinion in favor of a return by that State to the Federal compact, and it is even claimed that the President now entertains commissioners from Alabama who treat of peace. Every omen is auspicious, and the natal day of the Republic will not be more honored than will that upon which the olden compact will be again cemented by a Union that shall leave no shadow of opportunity for secession. Wall Street is the public barometer that tells us best the complexion of the political sky. Gold has steadily gone down and now for the first time ranges at 200 and under, instead of 225 to 240, as it has of late.

Successes of the army and navy and glimpses of the rainbow of peace that has cast a shadow upon the clouds of war to day, have induced even the cold blooded speculator of Wall Street to lessen his grip upon that all powerful regulator gold.

State Taxes Paid in Coin.—We said the other day that Jackson County had deposited to her credit funds to make up the deficiency between the legal tenders deposited with the State Treasurer in 1864 on account of State taxes for 1863, and equal to the par value of the same in coin. It seems that the facts are, that the Commissioners of that county have sent down and paid the taxes due the State for the years 1863 and 1864 amounting to something near $10,000, having previously withdrawn the treasury notes deposited as against the taxes due from Jackson county for 1863.

Lord Lyons has returned to England in ill health, and it is hardly probable that he will ever again resume the position he has so long held as Minister from the Court of Great Britain to the United States. During the whole progress of the rebellion we have never had occasion to suspect Lord Lyons of want of sympathy with our nation, or any intention or desire to encourage our foes. It has been remarkable that while we have so much cause of complaint against the English people their Minister has so fully retained the good will and respect of our own [illegible].

Rotten Codfish.—Will Mr. A. D. Barnard of Corvallis please tell the world if that was not a lot of spoilt codfish that came to his address all the way from America? And further we want to know if he really paid the amount he named to the P. T. Co. as freight? If we understand the matter aright, he had the privilege of paying what sum he felt willing. There ought to be a strong charge for such freight whatever route it may come by.

On the 9th December John E. Thissel was crushed so severely by the caving of the tunnel of the Idaho lodge, at Golden South Boise, that he died in a few hours. He was a native of Vermont.

A Greenback Man Outwitted.—Rather an amusing greenback transaction occurred in Albany the other day in which a certain [illegible] attempted to pay a debt of one hundred dollars, borrowed gold of three years' standing, in greenbacks at their face. He told his creditor that he would pay the face of the note without the interest in gold, or the note and interest (amounting to about $170) in greenbacks at their face. Without agreeing to the proposition, Mr. creditor remarked, "give me the gold." Mr. greenback passed it over, and Mr. creditor very deliberately credited the note with $100 and replaced it in his pocket, at the same time informing the greenback man that he would trouble him for the balance on the note as soon as the law would enforce its payment. The greenback man swore, looked dumbfounded and incontinently stoped, probably in search of greenbacks.—Albany Journal.

Peace Rumors in Richmond.

The Richmond [illegible] of Jan 16th says: Rumors [illegible] the nature of the peace negotiations which Blair carries back with him are very numerous. We are [illegible] that his mission brought the peace question to a point that provides for the appointment of Commissioners from either side with authority to [illegible] adjustment.

The Richmond Whig of Jan 16th says: It is understood that Blair had a private and confidential interview with the President. He came in no official capacity and had no official intercourse with any member of the Government. The belief in well informed circles is that the interview may lead to a conference between authorized Agents or Commissioners of the two Governments. It is known that President Davis will permit no form of state to stand in the way of sending or receiving Commissioners. Blair was handsomely entertained during his sojourn in Richmond. It is understood that he came in no official capacity but simply with the knowledge and consent of Lincoln. He expressed the opinion that Lincoln would certainly appoint Commissioners to meet Commissioners appointed by our President.

New York, Jan 19.—The Richmond Whig of last Monday says: It is stated that Jeff Davis sent an autograph letter to Blair expressing his willingness to send or receive Commissioners authorized to negotiate peace.

The boat that took Blair from Richmond on its way back carried to that place Gen. Singleton of Illinois, a Peace Democrat, from whose visit some Richmond papers are hoping for much in the way of pacification.

Blair to Return to Richmond.

The Herald's special dispatch says Blair Sr. will start for Richmond again to-morrow. Since his return he has been frequently in close consultation with the President and other leading members of the Administration, but what the tenor of his communications has been or with what authority he is now clothed is unknown. That he should so soon return is indicative of his having been charged with some communication by Davis, which has not been made public, and which in connection with the successes achieved by our forces since his interview with the rebel executive, and the evident disinclination of the masses of the Southern people to continue the war induces the belief on the part of the Administration that the resources of statesmanship may now be usefully employed in connection with a vigorous prosecution of military and naval operations to bring about a termination of existing difficulties. It is now certain that he returns at once to the rebel capital. This would indicate that Blair's first mission was far more successful than at first alleged.

Notwithstanding the fact that the military authorities have shut up the principal highways leading to the Yankee lines the negroes continue, say the Richmond papers, to flee from that city in gangs in apprehension of conscription into the rebel army.

Object of Stanton's Visit to Savannah.

New York, Jan 20.—The Tribune's Washington special dispatch says: One result of Secretary Stanton's visit to Savannah is to solve a doubt as to the soundness of Gen. Sherman on the negro question. This soldier's views are those of the Government. His treatment of the negroes of Savannah has inspired them with confidence and they rely on him wholly.

It is understood here that the country will be electrified in a few days by an order from him portioning among them the abandoned Sea Islands and property of fugitive rebel planters, establishing them in their new freeholds, and laying the foundation of a new social condition in the South whose future all politicians in the country are now permitted to see.

Another Rebel Raid Over the Canada Border.

New York, Jan 20.—The Tribune's Montreal correspondent, for whose trustworthiness the editor vouches, announces a projected rebel raid over the border for the purpose of releasing rebel prisoners in Clinton prison, and says that Plattsburg, Keesville, Burlington and Waterbury, Vermont, and Haverhill, New Hampshire, will be visited.

Missouri State Convention.

St Louis, Jan 19.—The bill of rights being before the Missouri Convention yesterday, the following resolutions passed:

First. That we hold it to be self evident that all men are created equally free and endowed by their Creator with certain inalienable rights among which are life, liberty, the enjoyment of the fruits of their own labor and the pursuit of happiness.

Second. That there cannot be in this State either slavery or involuntary servitude except as a punishment for crime whereof the party shall have been duly convicted.

Third. That no person on account of color [illegible] disqualified as a witness [illegible] contract [illegible] or be prevented from acquiring, holding or transmitting property, or be liable to any other punishment for any offense than that imposed upon others for like offense, or be arrested in the exercise of religious worship or be hindered in acquiring an education or be subjected in law to any other restraints or qualifications.

Exciting News from Richmond—Rupture on the Peace Question.

New York, Jan 20.—The Richmond papers contain a debate in the rebel Congress which shows that the Committee on Foreign Relations, to which was referred the peace propositions, reported unanimously in favor [illegible] Commissioners to sue for peace. It [illegible] shows that a [illegible] rupture between Davis and the Richmond [illegible] on the other which is shaking the whole Confederacy.

[illegible] the regular mail [illegible]

New York, Jan 21.—The Herald's [illegible] correspondent says: Ere this reaches New York Sherman's grand army will be on the [illegible] and we will soon hear of the Stars and Stripes floating over more conquered rebel cities. The brother of Gen. Hardee and others having made a claim to cotton in Savannah, Gen. Sherman gave them a written reply in which he said the cotton ought to go into the hands of the General Government, which he said could never be indemnified for the blood and treasure required to reclaim possession of Savannah. This was his opinion, till they might go to Washington and have his decision reversed.

The Times' Savannah correspondent of the 17th says: At this writing the left wing of Sherman's army is moving from Savannah on a line which the enemy may possibly ascertain for themselves. It is thought the rebels will make a stand at Ashley's, 30 miles south of Charleston, and then fall back on that city. They have not the men nor the stamina to stand against Sherman's magnificent army.

From Wilmington—Rebels blow up their Fort.

Baltimore, Md, Jan 20.—Reports from Fortress Monroe boats say vessels from off Wilmington last evening bring intelligence that the rebels had blown up Fort Caswell. Wilmington was still in the hands of the rebels.

Fortress Monroe, Jan 19.—The steamer Ralston arrived this morning from Fort Fisher. The latest news is that shortly after the surrender of Fisher the rebels blew up Fort Caswell and their inner works defending the entrance to Cape Fear river. At the time of the sailing of the steamer the smaller gunboats had entered the river and were actively engaged in searching for torpedoes preparatory to an advance on Wilmington. Shortly after the capture of Fisher a diagram containing a plan of the whole system of torpedo arrangements in Cape Fear river was discovered and our naval officers are making a search for a key to the diagram by which means the infernal designs of the enemy would be completely frustrated.

Washington, Jan 20.—The Navy Department has received dispatches from Admiral Porter of the 18th, in which he says the gunboats are now in the river and Wilmington is sealed against blockade runners. The rebels have destroyed all the works on Smith's Island. The Admiral says he was at Fort Fisher [illegible] after its surrender to the French and English and it would not compare either in size or strength with Fisher.

New York, Jan 21.—Admiral Porter in his detailed report of the attack on Fort Fisher gives the total number of naval officers killed and wounded at twenty one, and of others killed and wounded and missing at three hundred and nine. He states that the rebels have blown up Fort Caswell and the rebel steamers Tallahassee and Chickamauga, and that we will be in Wilmington before long.

Blair's Departure for Richmond.

Washington, Jan 21.—The Star special says: Blair left Washington [illegible] taking the steamer for City Point. It is believed he is to have an interview with the prominent men of the rebel Congress. Several rebel Congressmen expressed the desire to confer with authorized agents of the United States. Blair's errand to Richmond this time is more important than before.

From Mobile.

New York, Jan 20.—The [illegible] correspondent writing from the Mobile [illegible] says: As matter [illegible] the situation [illegible] the rebels [illegible] the Mobile and Ohio [illegible] the Alabama and Tombigbee [illegible] [illegible] Memphis [illegible] Mobile [illegible] the Pascagoula river [illegible]

Attempt of Convicts to Escape.—On Saturday morning last a gang of convicts under the control of Deputy Warden J P Ward and keepers King, Warner and Barry left the Penitentiary in this city to work on the streets. They were employed in cutting down the bank in Sixth, between Jefferson and Columbia street, dumping in the latter a distance of about 00 feet from the cut. At the "dumping" place a few moments after the day's work was begun, four of the convicts [illegible] Frank [illegible] ran [illegible] Fifth street. They were Lewis Matteo, convicted for assault with intent to kill, sentenced in June last to serve four years from Wasco county; an Indian called "Dick," who escaped about three or four years ago, and was sent back from Marion county for horse stealing, in November 1862; Wentworth Nuss, convicted in Wasco county for horse stealing, and Wm. Hogan, also an old "hand," who escaped some years ago and was returned from Marion county in August last. In a moment after they had dropped their wheel barrows they were pursued by Mr Barry and Mr Warner, when a shot from the last named officer felled Dick to the ground, and he was captured with a wounded leg. Matteo, leading the other two, ran to Main street a distance of less than 1000 feet, where he was shot by Mr Barry, receiving a severe wound. The two remaining then made a dash at Mr. Barry, but he brought his revolver to bear upon them, which compelled a surrender, and changed their base somewhat as they carried their wounded confederate to prison on a litter. Dick hobbled back to his cell and yesterday the wounded men were getting along quite comfortably. Matteo was shot through the body entire and it is not certain that he will survive. The affair created some considerable excitement and alarm amongst pedestrians on the street, but fortunately no innocent person was injured.

Indian Hostilities.—The scenes of last spring, below the Garden Field near this city, on the old Indian camp ground, appear to have a fair prospect of being revived. A band of straggling Spokanes have congregated there for some time past, and by making night hideous with their ribaldry, have become quite obnoxious. Their hostilities have been confined to themselves however, so far, and on Saturday night the scalping knife or bowie was brought into active requisition, resulting in death to one of the dusky villains, and bloodshed to another. The leader in the strife, known as Indian Brockie, was taken into custody by Officer Sanders, and the matter will be investigated this morning before Recorder McCoy.

Attempted Arson.—The building known as the Franklin House, situated on the water front of the city, just below Ash street, was set on fire, during the night of Friday last. Fortunately the fire was discovered in time to prevent damage. The building stands alone isolated from others, and some 12 feet above Capt. Ankeny's new wharf on piling, which leaves the rear open, and quite accessible. Several cords of wood are piled under it, into which the fire was kindled, unquestionably by some malicious scoundrel. There is, without doubt, a set of bad men with ruined characters and ruined fortunes infesting Portland who desire to "make a raise" by some such means and premises need watching that would be likely to prove a field for their operations.

Fine Printing and Binding.—There is no better criterion that we can produce of the times in our city, than the calls which are made for fine jobs of printing and its attendant book binding. Messrs. A. G. Walling & Co., are now running five or six machine presses, and a large force of hands, which is double the number they gave employment to last year, and there are more presses on the way from the East for their office. Mr Wm Seibert, late of San Francisco has established in the same building—Oregonian Block—a first class Book Bindery. He has been pursuing his avocation without much ostentation and is doing really a superior kind of work in the line of ruling and binding blank books, records, etc., for city, county and state offices, banking offices, steamship companies, mining companies, and for all other purposes. There no longer exists a necessity for sending to San Francisco for elegant printing and durable binding.

The Bell Ringers.—On Saturday afternoon at the entertainment given by the Bell Ringers, the juvenile population turned out en masse, and seemed to relish the amusements largely. In the evening, as for every evening during the week, a large audience witnessed the play. To day the company are to visit Salem, and give a series of entertainments. We have not the least hesitation in saying that they will be better appreciated by our Salem friends, than they were with us, for the simple reason that they have better accommodations for such musical feasts than what we boast. Wherever the Bell Ringers may go we wish them abundant success, for they are deserving of it.

John Foley's Celebrated Gold Pens.—We take pleasure in recommending the above superior pens—or rather, in adding our name to a list of about one thousand, who recommend the article for its superior qualities. S. J. McCormick, of the Franklin Book Store has the agency of these pens for the State, and has lately received a fine assortment to select from varying in size from No 1 to No 18, the last called the "Vicksburg Pen," the largest ever manufactured.

Important Sales.—Mr Richardson will proceed to day with the sale of the Bank Exchange furniture, on the premises. To-morrow he will dispose of a large assortment of furniture, household goods etc., at the premises on the corner of Stark and Fifth streets, lately occupied by M. Stock Esq. Both of these are sales comprising a desirable quality of goods.

Skamania Erased.—The Washington Territorial legislature have "wiped out" Skamania county W. T. and added the same, or at least a greater portion of it, to Clark county. This will enable the latter to redeem her credit, as it brings within the limits of her boundary the valuable improvements of the O. S. N. Company at the Cascades.

Arrests.—The following arrests were made since Saturday evening, the parties to appear at Judge McCoy's levee this morning:—Osborn by Officer Townsend; Henry Foyb, by Officer Donahue, for riotous and disorderly conduct.

The Weather.—Boys, young men, old men and ladies, everybody that can skate, will be on the ice to day about town, or wish to be. The weather has been freezing cold since noon on Saturday and was several degrees colder last night. Very likely communication with the Dalles will be again interrupted by this change.

Trinity Festival.—The festival given last week by members of Trinity Church will be repeated at Willamette Theatre on Wednesday evening. Mr Holmes has generously offered the building free of charge on this occasion. Tickets can be procured at $1 each.

Religious.—Prayer meeting will be held in the Congregational Church every evening this week, and on each evening there will be a thirty minute sermon by the pastor in charge.

Dalles Claim.—The following reference to the Dalles Mission claim is from the report of the Secretary of the Interior:

The claim of the Missionary Society of the Methodist Episcopal Church to land at the Dalles of the Columbia river in Oregon, based upon the first section of the Act of Congress approved August 14, 1848, having been brought before the Department upon an appeal on the 27th day of April last, I requested the advice of the Attorney General of the United States touching the law arising upon the facts disclosed by the papers in the case. On the 27th of May I had the honor to receive his reply, stating that in his opinion the question presented was purely judicial and not proper to be determined by any executive officer. In deference to this opinion the Department declined making a decision in that a similar case then before it. Proceedings in all such cases under that Act have been suspended in the General Land Office, and in the subordinate offices in Oregon.

Through Direct.—The telegraphic operator here, Dr Plummer, says that part of the dispatch [illegible] published to day came through direct from San Francisco without being repeated on the road which has only been done once before since the line was established.

Dr. HOSTETTER'S STOMACH BITTERS

As an invigorant and restorative, immediate in its beneficial action and permanent in its effect. It tones the stomach, improves the appetite, and acts like a charm upon the spirits. For dyspepsia, oppression after eating, bilious cholic, windy cholic, spasms of the stomach, sick or nervous head-ache, chills and fever, tremens, prostration and all the complaints peculiar to the feebler sex, the Bitters are earnestly recommended by those who have witnessed their superior efficacy in such cases. "A Slight Cold," Coughs.—Few are aware of the importance of checking a Cough or "SLIGHT COLD" in its first stage. That which in the beginning would yield to a mild remedy, if neglected, soon attacks the lungs. "Brown's Bronchial Troches" give sure and almost immediate relief. Military Officers and Soldiers should have them, as they can be carried in the pocket and taken as occasion requires.

Dr Hostetter's Stomach Bitters

Will accomplish that [illegible] revolution in the system [illegible] strengthen every [illegible] and brings the whole machinery of vitality into vigorous and healthful play.

Strengthen the System.

[illegible] invigorating [illegible] the broken down [illegible] of both sexes and all ages [illegible]

Dr. Hostetter's Stomach Bitters.

Debility from whatever cause arising may be cured, strength in whatever manner it may have been wasted, may be restored by the use of this powerful and healthy invigorant. For indigestion and all its painful effects, bodily and mental, they are a positive specific.

A Word to the Aged!

In the decline of life the loss of vital force consequent upon physical decay can only be safely supplied by some vivifying preparation which recruits the strength and spirits without entailing the exhaustion which is always the final effect of ordinary stimulants. We tender to the aged

Dr Hostetter's Stomach Bitters.

As an invigorant and restorative, immediate in its beneficial action and permanent in its effects. It tones the stomach, improves the appetite, and acts like a charm upon the spirits.

For Females:

Thousands of ladies resort to it as a remedy for hysteria, fluttering of the heart, nervous headache, vertigo, general debility, and all peculiar disturbances and derangements to which as a sex they are subject. It cheers and enlivens the depressed mental powers, as well as strengthens the body, and its use is never followed by any reaction.

BEWARE OF COUNTERFEITS. Purchase only of reliable dealers. Sold everywhere.
